

Corvanzo, Louisiana
December 17th 1864.

Dear Mary.

It affords me a great deal of pleasure to again have the pleasure of informing you of my continued good health, hoping that you & the dear children are enjoying the same inestimable blessing. Since writing to you last, as I then wrote you that I should probably do, I have been to New Orleans. I left here on Tuesday last & returned on yesterday. My visit did not avail anything. I was unable to get my pay & could get no assurance that they would be able to do so anyways shortly. On my return to this place, I found the Regiment absent on an expedition - they were gone 2 days, returning after night last night. They came back last night loaded down with Chickens, geese, turkeys, ducks, hogs, Cattle, Sugar, Molasses &c. The Hospital Attendants brought back with them, 2 doz. Chickens, 2 hogs, 2 turkeys & several geese & ducks. I will probably not leave here for home for some 2 or 3 days. I did intend starting to day, but there will be some 3 or 4 of our Officers (who will be mustered out under the Consolidation,) going up in the course of 2 or 3 days, & they are anxious that I should remain & go along with them. I am anxious to be along with them when they are paid off, as some of them are owing me money. If I do not get it now, I may never do so. We will have to go to Indianapolis to get our money, so that it will probably be along about the 1st days in January before I reach home.

The Order for the Consolidation of our Regiment & the 6th Indiana is now here. & the Mustering Officer is now at work on the necessary papers for the purpose of effecting it. Capt. Brooks & Lieut. Kimbley will both be mustered out of the Service under the Consolidation.

I had the happiness & pleasure of receiving this morning a very welcome letter from you written on the 8th Instant. from which I was glad to learn that you & the dear Children were all well. I long for the time to roll around when I shall have the exquisite pleasure of greeting & embracing you all. If I find that I have to remain here some 3 or 4 days, I will write to you again, otherwise I shall not write again until I see you.

In regard as to what Nellie had best do in regard to going to Paoli, he probably had better not make any permanent arrangements until I get home.

Hoping to see you all soon. I send my kindest regards to all enquiring friends. Kiss the dear darling Children for me & believe me. Dearest Mary, as ever.

Your Affectionate & Devoted Husband:
A. H. Gray.

Morganza, Louisiana

December 17th, 1864

Dear Mary,

It affords me a great deal of pleasure to again have the pleasure of informing you of my continued good health, hoping that you & the dear children are enjoying the same inestimable blessing. Since writing to you last, as I then wrote you that I should probably do, I have been to New Orleans. I left here on Tuesday last & returned on yesterday. My visit did not avail anything. I was unable to get my pay & could get no assurance that they would be able to do so anyways shortly. On my return to this place, I found the Regiment absent on an expedition. They were gone 2 days, returning after night last night. They came back last night, loaded down with chickens, geese, turkeys ducks, hogs, cattle, sugar, molasses & The hospital attendants brought back with them, 2 doz. chickens, 2 hogs, 2 turkeys & several geese & ducks. I will probably not leave here for home for some 2 or 3 days. I did intend starting today, but there will be some 3 or 4 of our officers (who will be mustered out under the consolidation,) going up in the course of 2 or 3 days, & they are anxious that I should remain & go along with them. I am anxious to be along with them when they are paid off, as some of them are owing me money. & if I do not get it now, I may never do so. We will have to go to Indianapolis to get our money, so that it will probably be along about the 1st days in January before I reach home.